COUNCIL TOLD RAILROAD ST. BUS TERMINAL OPENS DEC. 1ST

Establishment of a new bus terminal here by George F. Grawe and S. F. Snyder was reported at borough council's meeting Monday evening at the engine house.

Councilman George W. Naugle said: "Council asked my committee to look into the complaints concerning conduct of bus passengers in the Chambersburg St. area and I think I can report that our bus problems are solved."

"George Grawe, owner of the Varsity Diner and Towne Restaurant, has leased S. F. Snyder's lot off W. Railroad St. and work has already begun to level a lot, pave it and place lights. The house on the property will be converted to a bus terminal as soon as the family residing there can move."

Extra Parking Space, Too

"We have had about a dozen meetings with the bus companies. They are in favor of moving there and arrangements have been made to move the bus stop there at noon December 1. Cloyd Shetter, manager of the Shetter House, the present bus stop, has been notified that the change will take place. We are prepared to put the meters back in the present spaces on Chambersburg St. set aside as a bus stop. The meters will go in at noon December 1. I think we have succeeded in making arrangements which will provide 24-hour service for the bus passengers and provide the town with additional parking space downtown."

Council gave approval to changes in wiring and the phone system required in the setting up of the Civil Defense-Firemen's radio main station at the engine house or 24-hour operation starting in December.

President Guise explained that with the establishment of the dial telephone system in Gettysburg in December "there will no longer be an operator at the telephone exchange to answer our fire calls, sound the siren and answer our police calls and turn on the lights on the square for the officers."

Explains Changes

"We plan 24-hour-a-day operation of the CD center in the engine house. A special phone will be installed so that when anyone dials a fire call it will go direct to the engine house; the wires which now permit the telephone operator to sound the siren must be removed and the button placed in the radio room in the engine house here. The wiring which permitted the operators to put on the police light

LEGION TO HOLD VETERANS' DAY PARADE NOV. 8

Plans for a Veterans' Day parade on Sunday, November 8, were made during the monthly meeting of the Alfred J. Lentz American Legion Post Monday evening at the post home, Baltimore St.

All Legionnaires are urged to serve as an honor guard for the parade which will form in Lincoln Square at 1 p.m. and will march to the Soldiers' National Cemetery. Ceremonies will be conducted and Frank Kozicki, department commander, Catholic War Veterans, Lancaster, will speak.

The post was invited by the Chambersburg Joint Veterans' Club to participate in the latter's observance of Veterans' Day on November 11. Due to a conflict in dates the invitation was declined. Harry Ridinger was appointed to head a committee to coordinate similar functions in the future.

New Members Named

Two new members were voted into the American Legion and five new members were accepted for membership in the Veterans Club.

John E. Hoffman, R. 2, and Samuel D. Miller, Biglerville R. 2, were enrolled in the post. Those accepted as members of the Veterans' Club are: Robert G. Minner, 155 E. Middle St.; George P. Henry, W. Broadway; Kenneth E. Joffcoat, York St.; Louis B. Sonnenberg, Mummaburg; and Harold L. Robbins, Sigma Chi House, Gettysburg.

The privileges afforded the new members are largely parallel except in the case of the Veterans' Club, where no voting power is extended.

The post voted a donation to the muscular dystrophy fund, and re-

NEW PARKING METERS ARE PAYING OFF

Gettysburg's new parking meter system is paying off.

The report of Borough Treasurer Harry D. Ridinger to the town council at its meeting in the engine house Monday evening showed meter income for October was $3,195.83.

That amount is $728.06 more than the $2,467.77 secured from the meters in September. It is $941.90 higher than the $2,253.93 meter receipts in October, 1958, and it is $1,220.83 higher than the $1,975 obtained from the meters in October, 1957.

Meters provided most of the $4,804 income for the borough during the month. There was $1,565.78 from collections made by Burgess Wilbur Plank, of which $721 was from parking fines paid by those who forgot to put the money in the meters. The other $42.75 included $22.75 from Teeter Stone for rental of a truck and $20 fines collected by Justices of the Peace Robert P. Snyder and John Whitman.

Have $68,377 In Bank

Expenditures were $12,267.63, but the town was in no financial distress. It started October with $75,841.23 in the bank and ended with $68,377.81 in its general account. The report showed expenditures so far this year total $106,273.56.

President Flies To Barlow In 'Copter To Cast His Vote In General Election

President Eisenhower flew to Barlow in a helicopter early this afternoon from near Langley Field, Va., to cast his ballot in the general election. Mrs. John Eisenhower, his daughter-in-law, who resides in a home on the Eisenhower farm, also cast her ballot.

The President had flown to near Langley Field to lay the cornerstone on a multi-million-dollar headquarters of the government's super-secret Central Intelligence Agency. He spoke briefly at the site along with Allen W. Dulles, director of the far-flung intelligence network. Then the President took off for Barlow to vote in Cumberland Twp.

The first 'copter dropped down in a field in the rear of the fire hall voting precinct at 12:28 o'clock this afternoon. It carried Secret Service agents. The President's 'copter landed a minute late. The chief executive was accompanied by his son, Major John Eisenhower; his personal physician, Dr. Howard McC. Snyder, and his press secretary, James C. Hagerty.

Greeted By Pitzer

The President was greeted by H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee. They shook hands and the President smiled broadly.

Pitzer told the President: "I'm mighty happy, Mr. President, you came to vote today. It means a lot to the party and to the people of the county."

The President replied, "I am happy to come up here and vote and I hope the people will vote as well for the party this year as they did last year."

Kisses Granddaughter

Pitzer accompanied the President to the fire hall. En route the President stopped and hugged Mary Jean Eisenhower, his four-year-old granddaughter. Then he kissed his daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Eisenhower.

Mrs. Barbara Eisenhower was dressed in brown and wore no hat. Mary Jean was dressed in dark blue and wore a blue bonnet.

In the fire hall the President signed for his ballot with Mrs. Anna K. Maring, Democrat, minority inspector at the polls. He received ballot number 104. Barbara also signed for her ballot with Mrs. Maring and received ballot number 105. Major John Eisenhower presented an absentee ballot. He probably had filled out his ballot before he knew the President was going to fly here to vote.

* Leaves At 12:38

After the President stepped from the booth, where he had spent several minutes, as did Barbara, he deposited his ballot and turned to Chairman Pitzer and said: "These amendments, you know, you have to read them before you can vote." The President then walked to one side and conferred with Walter West, one of the farm foremen.

When the President left the voting precinct, the small crowd applauded him. He smiled and doffed his hat. Then he walked to his waiting 'copter, stepped inside, waved to Barbara and her daughter, the door was closed and the whirlybird took off at 12:38 p.m.

2 ORDINANCES ARE APPROVED BY COUNCILMEN

Gettysburg Borough Council at its meeting Monday evening in the engine house adopted two ordinances, one changing regulations pertaining to digging in the streets, the other permitting a lower permit fee for installation of oil tanks for home heating.

An earlier ordinance provided a $50 fee for installation of fuel tanks. The revision retains the $50 fee for commercial tanks and a $5 fee for tanks for home heating.

The other ordinance updates the town's digging laws to conform with changes made in the state's regulation since passage of the last ordinance. Gettysburg is one of the few small towns which can issue digging permits on streets which are state highways.

Have Higher Fee

The new ordinance also provides a higher fee in newly built streets. Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner told council that when he urged utilities to lay pipes in one of the new streets in Colt Park he was told that that the utility did not mind paying the permit and would "put down its pipes at its leisure."

According to the new ordinance application fee of $2 must be paid, and in addition for dirt streets $4 for the first 50 lineal feet and five cents for each additional foot; for oil or water bound macadam the charge is $7.50 per square yard or fraction thereof; for asphalt, amesite, concrete, etc. the cost is $15 for each square yard or fraction.

Will Double Fee

The ordinance provides that utilities will be given four months notice when streets are to be built or rebuilt and during that period may lay mains at a sum representing only actual cost of replacement.

But if digging permits are sought for a new street within a year after it has been built the building permit will be doubled: within the second year the permit will be

808 VOTES ARE CAST AT 1 P.M.

Eight hundred eight persons cast ballots in the four Gettysburg polling places up to 1 o'clock this afternoon, or 73 less than had voted by the same time in the election four years ago.

Only First Ward, second precinct, showed an increase, with 189 voting up to 1 o'clock compared to 187 four years ago, 129 in 1951 and 104 in 1947.

First Ward, first precinct had 142 votes compared to 189 four years ago, 111 in 1951 and 92 in 1947.

Second Ward had 243 votes, compared to 270 four years ago, 195 in 1951 and 182 in 1947.

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE ROLE IS DEFENDED

Despite the claims of many that stress should be put science studies to the exclusion of others, "there will always be a place for the small liberal arts, church-related college," Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, assistant to the president of Gettysburg College, told the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening in the YWCA.

"Man can gain great technological skill, but if he loses his soul in the process what will it gain him? The liberal arts have given a well-rounded education that is needed by the world, probably now more than ever."

"There have been many who suggest that our present second place in science is the fault of higher education. They argue we need a restudy of what we are doing, whether our type of education must be redone or not. Whether such an attempt will be

Rice Casts First Vote As State Chairman

John S. Rice, W. Broadway, secretary of the Commonwealth and chairman of the Pennsylvania State Democratic Committee, cast his first vote since election to the latter office at 8:03 o'clock this morning in the Second Ward voting precinct, Chambersburg St. He was accompanied by Mrs. Rice. Chairman Rice cast the 33rd ballot and Mrs. Rice the 34th.

There were only a few workers and party stalwarts at the polls when the Chairman and Mrs. Rice arrived. Rice was in a happy mood. He was all smiles and his early morning enthusiasm reflected the confidence he has in a "Democratic sweep across the state."

When asked by a Times reporter how he felt the election would go today, Chairman Rice said: "I feel confident that there will be a Democratic sweep across the state. Our workers are enthusiastic and have done a noble job in the pre-election campaign."

"I earnestly hope that everyone will fulfill his or her obligation to vote today. It is only by every citizen exercising the privilege we have to vote in a free election that we can have good government at all levels."

After visiting briefly with the small group at the polls, Chairman and Mrs. Rice left by automobile for state headquarters at

3 Past Presidents Talk To Kiwanians

Harry Spangler and Robert Diehl were selected to represent the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club at the Pennsylvania State Education dinner meeting next Monday evening at 6 o'clock in the Eisenhower School cafeteria in observance of National Education Week. They were chosen during the club's weekly dinner meeting Monday evening at Bren-Da's Restaurant on the Fairfield Rd. President Robert McCoy presided.

Plans were announced for a club ladies' night November 30 at the Methodist Church.

Three past presidents, Harry Spangler, Ernest Krape and Herbert Hamme, spoke on Kiwanis activities.

SAYSCOURTESY NEEDED MOST ON HIGHWAYS

"Courtesy is contagious and we need an epidemic of it on the highways of our nation," O. D. Shipley, director of Pennsylvania's Bureau of Highway Safety for the last two years, told members of the local Lions Club Monday evening at the Shetter House.

Emphasizing the need for common courtesy by motorists as the best way to cut the accident toll, Mr. Shipley declared: "There is a rude or discourteous act on the part of one or more drivers involved in almost every accident. If I were to make a single suggestion for reducing highway accidents it would be to urge every driver to read Emily Post's 'Motor Manners.'"

He urged the use of radar by state police, the use of chemical tests for intoxication and periodic re-examination of all licensed operators in the state as means his bureau favors to reduce the highway accident toll in the state.

1,654 Killed In '58

Opening his talk with the observation that in 1958 there were 158,000 reportable auto accidents in Pennsylvania in which 1,654 persons were killed, 86,000 injured and a damage bill of over $250,000,000, he described 1958 as a "comparatively good year."

Reviewing Pennsylvania accident records for the last three decades, Mr. Shipley noted that from 1930 to 1937 an average of 2,400 persons were killed on Pennsylvania highways each year. The average dipped to 1,475 during the war years.

The state won a national award for a major reduction in highway accident tolls on the basis of its 1958 record and is hoping to qualify for another such award this

Glenn Guise, N. Stratton St., a member of borough council for the last four years, was elected president of council Monday evening at its meeting in the engine house to succeed the late H. M. "Happy" Oyler.

Burgess Wilbur L. Plank presided at the opening of Monday's session to conduct the election. It also marked beginning of the term of John A. Welschone, 226 Gettys St., named last month by council to fill the unexpired term of C. Donald Rebert. Welschone was sworn in by Plank before the meeting.

Local Woman, 91, Given Ballot No. 91

Mrs. Annie Cunningham, 91, Washington St., one of the oldest if not the oldest resident of Gettysburg, cast her ballot in today's election this morning.

Mrs. Cunningham, who is 91 years of age (she will be 92 November 20), cast her ballot at the voting precinct in the court house. She received ballot number 91 in deference to her age and her long-standing practice of voting in all elections.

DRIVER CHARGED

A charge of reckless driving was lodged against an East Berlin motorist Saturday following a two-car accident in York that caused a total of $400 damages, York police reported. He was identified as William H. Christine. The other car was a parked vehicle owned by Charles Weaver, York.

The Highland Twp. Supervisors and Paul L. Plank Jr., Gettysburg R. 2, Monday night entered into an agreement by which Plank will operate a landfill operation on the 96-acre farm of Mrs. Dorothy K. Wood.

Attorney John D. Thrush displayed the agreement between the Highland Supervisors and Plank and an agreement between Plank and Mrs. Wood at the meeting of the Gettysburg Borough Council at the engine house.

He told the council: "As you know Freedom Twp. has closed Plank's sanitary landfill there. We had planned to fight it in the courts and I think we had a good case. But this agreement signed tonight with the Highland supervisors puts Plank back into operation immediately without a long drawn out court battle. We are happy to announce that the town has no garbage disposal problem."

"Landfills Proper, Adequate"

The agreement with Highland, signed by Supervisors H. E. Cluck, Samuel T. Kessel and Charles T. Coffelt, starts off "Whereas there has presently arisen a problem in Adams County wherein certain persons have sought to close places in which garbage, trash and other waste is placed and whereas a real and great peril can be created not only within Highland Twp. but throughout Adams County unless proper and sanitary means are secured for the disposal of garbage, trash and other waste materials and whereas upon investigation and inquiry the supervisors, signatures hereto, have been convinced beyond any reasonable doubt that sanitary landfills as controlled by the Department of Health of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are proper and adequate to dispose of garbage, trash and other waste materials, with the intent of being legally bound at law and in equity, the parties hereto agree . . ."

Income For Township

The agreement is a one-year contract, which will continue unless rejected 30 days before termination, which gives Plank exclusive right to operate a landfill in the township so long as he operates within the requirements of the state and approval of the supervisors, pays $50 a month to the general fund of the township and gives Highland Twp. residents first call on his service. The contract states that he will haul the debris of "any resident of Highland Twp. at rates and conditions as are current and reasonable . . . and agrees to give preference to residents of Highland Twp. at such times as are difficult for the disposal business to be transacted due to weather conditions, strikes, fuel shortages and the like, and also will allow all Highland Twp. residents to use his facilities at customary rates and charges."

The agreement with Mrs. Wood provides for a monthly rental of $100 to her for the use of such of her 98 acres as are required for the landfill and for rights of way to reach the landfill.

Mrs. Joseph Vallery Wright, Narberth, Pa., state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, will be the guest of honor at a luncheon given her by the Gettysburg chapter in the Hotel Gettysburg Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Wright will be the speaker.

State Regent Of DARToBe Local Guest

Other guests at the luncheon will include the state Secretary Mrs. George J. Walz, of Harrisburg; the state Treasurer Mrs. F. A. Paul Ziesmer, Quakertown, Pa., and the state chairman of approved schools, Mrs. John A. Fritchey II, Harrisburg.

VAN DOREN'S FUTURE IS UNCERTAIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles Van Doren, out of one job and suspended from another, faced today a future clouded by his story of deceiving the public on a rigged television quiz show.

Within hours of his public testimony, Columbia University accepted Van Doren's offer to resign as an assistant professor of English. The action by the university's board of trustees was made effective immediately.

The National Broadcasting Co., which suspended Van Doren with pay last month from a $50,000-a-year post as commentator, said it was withholding comment. The suspension was subject to the outcome of the congressional hearings.

Van Doren himself was uncertain of his future plans.

Hopes To Be Teacher

"I hope to be a teacher," he told newsmen. "I think I would be better at that than anything else."

To some extent, at least, Van Doren's future may depend on public reaction to his emotion-packed story of accepting help while winning fame as a scholar on NBC's onetime quiz show "Twenty-One."

"I was involved, deeply involved, in a deception," he told the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee Monday. He added at another point that "I would give almost anything I have to reverse the course of my life in the last three years."

Many Well Wishes

The immediate reaction was mixed. Some of the committee members praised his action in telling the truth at last, and urged that his employers wait for public reaction before making any decision.

The one public interruption during the hearing was hostile. The caustic remark by Rep. Steven B. Derouin (R-NY) that an intelligent adult shouldn't be praised for telling the truth brought a burst of applause.

Yet as the boyish-faced, wavy-haired Van Doren left the hearing room, spectators fought their way through the mass of reporters to reach his side, shake his hand, wish him well.

2 FINED AND 7 FACE CHARGES

State police have issued 10-day notices to the following motorists: Dionisio Roman, Gettysburg R. 1, failure to yield right-of-way; Roy Weaver, Columbia, stop sign violation; Matthew H. McAllen, Fangettsburg, driving too fast for road conditions.

In addition Calvin S. Butler Jr., Ivy, Va., was charged this morning with failure to yield the right-of-way at a truck stop on Rt. 15. Butler appeared before Justice Snyder and was fined $10 and costs.

DENIES ASKING VAN DOREN FOR $5,000 SHARE

NEW YORK (AP) — TV producer Albert Freedman denied today to the New York Journal-American that he ever sought $5,000 from Charles Van Doren.

The newspaper obtained the statement in a telephone interview with Freedman in Mexico City.

Freedman, one of the creators of the defunct National Broadcasting Co. quiz show "Twenty-One," went to Mexico after testifying before a House subcommittee probing the quiz show frauds.

Free On Bail

Van Doren, testifying before the committee Monday, said that after he had won $100,000, Freedman once said to him: "Charles, I think I ought to have $5,000 of that money."

The newspaper quoted Freedman as saying he had not implicated Van Doren or any other contestant during the testimony at the subcommittee's executive hearing.

Freedman would not comment on whether he had given testimony concerning Van Doren during an appearance before the New York County grand jury.

Freedman is under indictment by the grand jury on two perjury counts. He was arrested Nov. 7, 1958, and has since been free in $1,300 bail. No date has been set for trial.

KE TALKS AT CORNERSTONE LAYING IN VA.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today the government's intelligence agents are a mainstay of peace as well as national security.

The President paid his tribute in a talk at nearby Langley, Va., where he participated in cornerstone laying ceremonies at the new headquarters building of the Central Intelligence Agency.

In his prepared text, Eisenhower said America's fundamental aspiration is the preservation of peace.

Necessary To Goal

To achieve that goal, the President said, the nation must have from its agents the picture of conditions, resources, requirements and attitudes in the world.

"They are essential to the development of policy to further our long term national security and best interests," Eisenhower said.

Eisenhower told the CIA personnel that the work in which they are engaged requires the highest order of dedication, ability, trustworthiness and selflessness. "To say nothing of the finest type of courage, whenever needed."

Dulles Also Speaks

"Success cannot be advertised; failure cannot be explained," he said. "In the work of intelligence, heroes are undecorated and unsung, often even among their own fraternity. Their inspiration is rooted in patriotism—their reward can be little except the conviction that they are performing a unique and indispensable service for their country, and the knowledge that America needs and appreciates their efforts. I assure you this is indeed true."

CUGAT SAYS HE HAD HELP ON QUIZ SHOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Orchestra leader Xavier Cugat told congressional probes today he received advance help as a contestant on "The $64,000 Challenge" TV quiz program.

Cugat was the leadoff witness at today's session of House subcommittee hearings which have exposed rigging of once top-rated quiz programs.

He said he appeared on the program starting in June 1958 for publicity purposes, but "nobody told me in advance that I was going to win any particular amount of money or that I was going to win at all."

Won $16,000

He actually won $16,000, he said, of which 10 per cent went to his publicity man who arranged the appearance, some went to his brother, some to Spanish and Italian orphanages, and "most of the balance went for taxes."

"I know I broke no law," he said. "I know I intended no injury to any person. I know that as an entertainer I am called upon all the time to make-believe, to help make a good show."

"I suppose the producers of 'The $64,000 Challenge' also wanted to make a better show, and so they made-believe, too. If there was too much make-believe, I wish you could do something about it without giving entertainment too much of a black eye."

PENNSYLVANIA CONTRIBUTIONS CALLED "GOOD"

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
Associated Press Special Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—Pennsylvania contributions to both the Republican and Democratic national committee funds this year are considered good despite the fact that political leaders regard the year before a presidential election as a tough one for raising money.

The Democratic National Committee received a total of $30,000 from Pennsylvania's Democratic State Finance Committee, largest in the nation among Democrats for the period June 1-Aug. 31.

It was topped only by a $40,000 contribution by the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee to the GOP national headquarters.

$100 From Democrat
Pennsylvania contributions followed a pattern of substantial gifts from individuals among the Republicans and donations from organizations in the Democratic ranks.

Only one individual contribution came from a Democrat. This was $100 from Charles G. McCaffrey of Pittsburgh.

The $30,000 donation from the Democrats was submitted by Matthew H. McCleskey, Philadelphia, on behalf of the party's state finance chairman.

Helen Clay Frick, Pittsburgh, headed the Pennsylvania Republican contributions to the national committee with $3,000.

Five other $1,000 contributions were listed. These came from Dr. Robert L. Johnson, Wynnewood, chancellor of Temple University; J. S. Mack, McKeesport; Geoffrey C. Beard, Pittsburgh; and Joseph G. Risenkang Jr., and Howard Butcher III, both of Philadelphia.

Individual contributions by Pennsylvanians to the national Republican committee included:

Republican State Finance Committee, $1,132; Frank A. Mesta, and Lorenz Iverson, Pittsburgh, $500; Stephen Putcharn, Jenkintown, $250; Wharton Sinkler, Philadelphia, $200; Rawson G. Lizar, Ardmore, $100; Henry C. Fox Jr., Philadelphia, $50; P. Nicholson Wood, St. Davids, $50; Stewart E. Lauer, York, $50; Montgomery County Republican Committee, $7; Robert C. Grady, Coraopolis $10; H. J. Op Dyke, Spring House, $3.62; Young Republicans of Pennsylvania, $1.80.

Reading Announces Excursion Schedule

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Reading Railroad announced today it will offer excursion rates to New York from Reading, Pottstown, Royersford, Phoenixville and Jenkintown, Pa., and West Trenton, N. J., on 26 Saturdays through next April 23, effective this week.

The railroad also announced that it will operate half fare excursions between eight eastern Pennsylvania communities and Philadelphia for the next three Saturdays.

The excursion rate will apply from Pottsville, Schuylkill Haven, Auburn, Hamburg, Reading, Pottstown, Royersford and Phoenixville.

CAIRO (AP)—The United Arab Republic will pay Sudan 15 million pounds—42 million dollars—for Sudanese lands in the Wadi Halfa area that will be flooded by the Aswan high dam, the newspaper Al Ahram reported today.

The paper said the U.A.R. and her southern neighbor also have agreed that Sudan will get almost two-thirds of the Nile River water which the huge dam in southern Egypt will keep from flowing to waste in the Mediterranean.

The reported agreement removes the last major obstacle to the start of work on the Aswan dam.

PANAMA (AP)—American authorities in the Panama Canal Zone stood ready for any emergency today—the 56th independence anniversary of the republic of Panama—but made no open display of precaution.

An air of alertness pervaded the Canal Zone as a result of calls by two Panamanian nationalists for a show of their country's flags in the Canal Zone. The United States holds a perpetual lease on the 10-mile-wide, 40-mile-long strip of land.

"OUR BROWNIE"

There is a Brownie in our house... a cute mischievous elf... who has the knack of making... a nuisance of herself... she leads our dog a merry chase... and jumps from chair to chair... until her mother calls a halt... with a ferocious glare... of course our little Brownie has... a tender, peaceful side... when she is playing with her dolls... we view her with great pride... when she is visiting with friends... or at her grandma's house... our nest is just as quiet... as a sleepy mouse... but we miss our Brownie... more than words can say... time is the wind, and she will be... a big Girl Scout someday.

Mother Clarke Appeal
Following hospital and financial reports, correspondence from Mother Clarke, Thurmont, Md., was called to the attention of members. It was pointed out that each year, particularly at Christmas, Mother Clarke distributes candy, cigarettes, magazines and good cheer to hospitalized veterans with the help of veterans' organizations and civic support. Members agreed to assist in her efforts.

Additional correspondence concerns Veterans' Day observances was called to the attention of members. The letter from department headquarters, Harrisburg, said, in part, "This observance is now an occasion for demonstrating that American Veterans personify the unity of this great nation. To those in other parts of the world, who oppose our way of life, this great army of men and women who have served in the armed forces in time of war must be seen as a symbol of America's willingness and ability to close ranks and fight to uphold the dignity of the individual."

"If it were to serve no other purpose, Veterans' Day must demonstrate to the world the national unity which is the strength of a great nation, and it should remind all Americans that this country has an obligation to maintain constant vigilance and intensified preparedness, if we are to continue to meet the challenges of the future."

Allen Swanson, 15, was admitted to York Hospital with head injuries. His condition was listed as satisfactory by hospital personnel.

The driver of the car, Kenneth K. Krout, 16, was treated for cuts of the head and bruises of the body at the same hospital where both were conveyed by Reliance ambulance of West York.

Union Argues No Emergency To Justify Any T-H Injunction

WASHINGTON (AP)—Union lawyers centered early argument before the Supreme Court today on a contention there is no national emergency to justify an 80-day injunction sending the half-million striking steelworkers back to the job.

That point was brought to the fore in the first question from the bench as the high court opened a hearing on the union's appeal from the back-to-work order issued by U.S. Dist. Judge Herbert P. Sorg in Pittsburgh and upheld by the 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals in Philadelphia.

Arthur J. Goldberg, general counsel for the United Steelworkers Union, opened the argument with a recitation of the background of the 112-day-old stoppage and what has happened in lower courts.

Close To '58 Production
The attorney said steel output this year will come close to the figures of 1958 when there was no strike, "even if the strike should go on for the rest of the year, and we hope and pray it won't." Goldberg said the nonstrike steel companies plus Kaiser Steel Co., with which the union has reached a contract, have a capacity of about 25 million tons of steel annually.

Justice William O. Douglas broke in to ask the relevancy of the figures.

Questions By Justices
They relate, Goldberg replied, to the question whether the nation has enough steel to meet defense needs.

The Taft-Hartley law provides for an injunction in case of a health or national emergency.

Justice Felix Frankfurter got in the second question. He asked whether the fact steel production will approximate 85 million tons this year, even if the strike is not settled, is attributable to technological improvements and plant additions.

Not Likely To Spread
"They are a substantial factor," Goldberg replied.

With the settlement with Kaiser, Goldberg told the court, nonstrike steel producers have more than 17 per cent of the entire industry's capacity.

Justice John M. Harlan asked if there is any likelihood the strike will spread to the companies, other than Kaiser, still making steel. Goldberg had said these account for about 15 per cent of the nation's production.

Goldberg answered that he does not believe there is any chance these companies will be involved because most of them have agreements providing that the settlement reached in the nationwide dispute will apply to them.

Only An "Opinion"
Goldberg emphasized repeatedly that President Eisenhower in his orders and statements directing that the Taft-Hartley proceedings be invoked, only gave an opinion—not a finding of fact as lawyers understood it—that the national health and safety would be imperiled by continuation of the stoppage.

Frankfurter commented that the President was dealing with the future and therefore had to be of opinion.

Chief Justice Earl Warren inquired whether Goldberg meant to imply the President had not properly followed the provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act in invoking that procedure.

The attorney replied hastily that he was not making any such implication.

2 ORDINANCES

75 per cent more than normal; during the third year 50 per cent above normal, during the fourth year 25 per cent above normal and after that at the regular fees set up for the work.

The new ordinance also prohibits the closing of any street at any time. The ditch or trench may close off only one half the street at any time.

Provides For Fines
Fines of from $25 to $100 are authorized by the ordinance for violation of its provisions.

A resolution was adopted in the death of Harry M. Oyler, late president of council, commending him for his service.

James E. Schwenk, Baltimore St., and H. R. Hallock, engineer from Gannett, Fleming, Corddry and Carpenter, Inc., Harrisburg, spoke on the need for an airport here to accommodate larger planes. Funds are available for the work from the state and federal governments, they said.

Study Airport Plans

Schwenk told council, "I have nothing to do about this but to urge the town to take advantage of an opportunity. I am interested in aviation and I know Gettysburg can get a lot of business from aviation if it has an airport." Hallock said that the Federal Aviation Agency has listed as one of the places to be developed but "that does not indicate approval. You would have to set up plans and then the federal agency would approve or disapprove a federal

WILL PROMOTE U. S. BOURBON THRU EUROPE

By PETER GROSE

LONDON (AP)—The retired admiral from Kentucky emptied his glass and complained, "People over here don't have the foggiest notion what real bourbon tastes like!"

Determined to change this is Vice Adm. William J. Marshall, 56, just arrived for a tour to show Europeans the joys of drinking Kentucky's favorite beverage. Marshall is president of the Bourbon Institute of America.

"Imported scotch is the snob drink at home," Marshall said, "so why shouldn't imported bourbon catch on among the upper class here?"

Holds News Conference
Marshall started his campaign Monday with a news conference in London's posh Claridge's Hotel.

Liveried butlers mingled with guests in the chandeliered ballroom, discreetly passing out bourbon and water, bourbon on the rocks, mint juleps, Manhattans and occasional old-fashioned.

Bourbon whisky is virtually unknown outside America, Marshall explained, even though more of it is produced and sold than any other whisky in the world.

To Inspect Competition
The admiral said he's going up to Scotland Saturday to see one of the distilleries that turns out his competition.

A Scottish reporter queried: "Without being rude, sir, do you seriously think you're going to get people here to drink this other kind of whisky?"

"It's going to be a long, long process," the admiral conceded, "but our aim is to sell the same production of bourbon to scotch here as they sell scotch to our bourbon back home."

The dour Glasgow reporter returned to the bar and ordered a double scotch.

LONDON (AP)—Home Secretary R. A. Butler ruled today that German-born Guenther Fritz Podola must hang Thursday for the murder of a London police officer. Podola, 30, was convicted of fatally shooting Sgt. Raymond Purdy last July 13 when the officer tried to arrest him on charges of making lewd telephone calls to a model, Verne Schiffman.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will hold a news conference Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. appropriation based upon the plans.

Council decided that "the county and Cumberland Twp. should be consulted on this," on the suggestion of Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell Sr.

President Glenn Guise directed that the finance committee "study this matter with the Cumberland supervisors and the county commissioners and report back and I want this placed on the minutes so it will be carried out no matter who is elected to council tomorrow."

A report by L. Walter Coble, police pension fund supervisor, showed that the "cashing in" of insurance policies for police pensions provided $15,110, about $2,000 more than expected, and as a result council had to place only $1,000 in the pension fund instead of $7,900 as originally scheduled.

A representation of the Penn Valley Publication Co. of State College, which had handled the codification of the laws of 60 communities during the last eight years, reported on a preliminary survey of the borough's ordinances preparatory to making a bid for codification.

INITIAL WORD: WEATHER FINE, TURNOUT POOR

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Voting was reported light most places in the morning hours of Pennsylvania's election today. The weather was crisp and sunny, but this did not seem to stimulate much interest in contests devoid of any real drama or overriding significance.

Statewide, the balloting is for Superior and Supreme Court judges and on three amendments to the constitution.

Actually, chief interest focused on the Philadelphia mayoralty race. Republican Harold Stassen is trying to unseat Mayor Richard S. Dilworth, a Democrat. He was not given much chance to do it.

Republican Edge
An all-time record 54 million people were eligible to vote. Of that total 2,636,525 are Republicans, 2,566,629 Democrats.

With the Democrats predicting a Dilworth victory margin of perhaps 150,000, the two judgeship contests could be decided by the number of Philadelphians voting the straight party ticket.

From early reports Harrisburg was one of the few cities with moderately heavy voting.

Minor Disturbances Cited
A few minor disturbances at the polls occurred in Harrisburg and a few other cities. There were the usual troubles with voting machines, but crews of repairmen were stationed at strategic spots to take care of the breakdown.

U. N. ELECTION CONTEST IS CONTINUING

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Poland and Western-backed Turkey continued their see-saw election battle today as the U.N. resumed its efforts to break the stubborn deadlock over a seat in the Security Council.

No break was in sight. The General Assembly plunged into a new round of balloting after two weeks of private talks. The voting morning as it did on Oct. 19, when Turkey and Poland alternately moved in and out of the lead.

Both Far Short
On today's first ballot—the 32nd of the contest—Poland received 39 votes and Turkey 36. On the next ballot Turkey moved back into the lead with a vote of 41 to 38 for Poland. Turkey had been in front when the voting was suspended two weeks ago.

Both candidates were far below the required two-thirds majority. All efforts to find a compromise plan appeared to have failed, and neither candidate showed any inclination to withdraw. The United States said it still was firmly behind Turkey. The Soviet Bloc continued to push for Poland's election.

On the 34th ballot, Turkey edged up to 43 and Poland got 36. This was the highest number received by Turkey, but at one stage Poland received 48—only six short of election.

ROME (AP)—Leading Italian newspapers today reported that a visit to Rome by President Eisenhower is practically a certainty.

The newspapers said he would stop in the Italian capital on his way to Paris for the Dec. 19 Western summit conference.

The White House, the U.S. Embassy in Rome and the Italian Foreign Ministry all said they could neither confirm nor deny the reports.

NEW YORK (AP)—The leadership of the American Communist party says it is reaping benefits from Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's visit here, and from recent Soviet space achievements.

This appraisal is contained in an open letter to party members, from the group's National Executive Committee, published in last weekend's Worker, the Communist newspaper.

Kenneth W. Johns and Secretary F. Stanley Hoffman, recommends: That Wainwright Ave. from Baltimore St. be widened to the High School parking lot and that a street be laid from that intersection to the dead end of S. Stratton St. to establish connection between Stratton and Baltimore Sts.

That College Lane be extended south and east through the Reading Railroad property to N. Washington St.

That parking on N. Stratton St. from York to E. Lincoln Ave. be limited to "one side only."

That parking on Liberty St. be permitted on one side and that the street be opened to two-way traffic. It is now a one-way street south.

That parking be restricted to one side of E. Middle St. from S. Stratton to Fifth St.

The Planning Commission also wrote "It is pointed out that as of this date the commission has had no reply to its October 5 communication to Borough Council and that such reply is necessary to guide it in action at its November 9 meeting." The October 5 communication desired among other things to know how E. Broadway was increased in width without an ordinance, or if an ordinance was passed, how it was passed without submission to the Planning Commission.

year, the speaker said. Nationally the accident toll has been rising while Pennsylvania's toll drops, he added.

"Political Fix" Is Out
He reviewed the state is following to make the highways safer by a better system of center line markings, better signs, a re-evaluation of limited speed zones and expansion of the system of limited access highways.

Asserting that the day of the "political or influence fix" on drivers' license suspensions is over, in this state, Mr. Shipley said the present system of warning letters to first offenders and "our realistic plan of suspensions and penalties" is "the best in the nation."

He said 90,000 revocations and suspensions are going out from Harrisburg this year and there "is no favored few getting protection from the operation of this system."

Expressing concern over evidence of parental neglect in cases of some juvenile drivers and voicing opposition to all drag racing because it "breeds the incentive to race on the highways," Mr. Shipley said he favors provisional or probationary licenses for youths under 18 rather than raising the age limit to that level.

Urges Re-examination
"The advanced age driver, per mile of operation, is the most dangerous driver on the highway today," the speaker said as he urged periodic re-examination of drivers to take drivers with bad vision, hearing or health conditions that make them hazards off the state's roads. He described compulsory re-examination as "a politically red hot issue," but predicted its eventual enactment.

Pointing to a need for a special "commercial license" for truck operators, he said this state is one in which an 80-year-old woman could drive the biggest truck rig on the roads.

Introduce New Member
On the point of chemical tests for intoxication, he said devices have been developed to the point where they can tell how much a driver drank, when and what proof within 30 minutes after the drink was taken. He said the present law on intoxication tests is inadequate. He added that pastors are being invited to help in the campaign to fix moral responsibility for highway accidents.

Shipley was introduced by M. Hardy Nichols, the club's program chairman. President Douglas W. Smith presided with about 60 members and guests present.

John W. Bashore was introduced as a new member. Zone Chairman William Schultz, Fairfield, also was introduced.

Next week the club will dine in the Eisenhower School cafeteria for an Education Week program.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Air conditioning and refrigeration sales are up 40 per cent, an industry spokesman says.

George S. Jones Jr. of Washington, managing director of the Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Institute, told the group's 11th exposition that sales of packaged central units would reach 350,000 units.

Among the items on display at the huge exposition was an air-conditioned doghouse.

NICE, France (AP)—The gambling public in Nice was limping along on one casino today. Red tape jammed the works at Nice's two largest establishments.

The two big casinos failed to fill in all the forms necessary to get their government permits renewed. They have to close until their papers are in order. This may take several days. And right in the big winter season too.

County CD Director William G. Council appointed Weaver as the town's CD director.

Payment To Library
A $1,000 donation to the Adams County Free Library, authorized by the budget last January, was formally voted so that the check could be delivered.

George E. Keady, Gettysburg R. 2, former part-time policeman at the Harrisburg St. crossing during periods when children cross from Eisenhower school, urged council to "throw away the rule book and take immediate action before some youngster is killed at that crossing." He said while he was an officer there, before resigning: "Cars failed to slow down and came blasting past the intersection at speeds up to 55 miles per hour. The law says drivers should go only 15 miles per hour in a school area. I am afraid during the winter when there is ice on the road someone is going to skid, injuring or maybe killing a half dozen youngsters."

To Call Meeting
Keagy, in urging council to "forget the rule book" was referring to an opinion of the borough solicitor that only men who have taken the Civil Service examination for policemen can be appointed as temporary officers.

Burgess Wilbur L. Plank asked for a meeting with county, Cumberland Twp., school and local officials with the borough solicitor and Keady to "work out some plan" for the intersection at the borough line. He said that after such a meeting he will report to council of the "need for further action."

Man Cheats Death In Stunning Crash
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A station wagon crashed through a fence on the Schuylkill Expressway today, plunged to a traffic lane below and collided with a truck trailer. The station wagon driver was seriously injured.

John S. Lawson, 28, of Haverford, was admitted to Hahnemann Hospital with head and face cuts and other injuries.

John Cole, 35, of Reading, was driving the truck trailer bearing into the eastbound ramp on a trip from Reading, Pa., to Camden, N. J. He was not hurt. Cole told police he saw the station wagon dropping in front of him and braked, but was unable to avoid a crash.

LSU HOLDS ITS PLACE AT TOP IN GRID POLL

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

This is the week of decision for the big boys who rank high in the football poll. Louisiana State, Northwestern, Syracuse and Penn State should know if they can hope to go all the way by Saturday night.

LSU just finished a harrowing test, beating Mississippi 7-3 on a last-quarter touchdown and then holding off Ole Miss in a goal line stand to remain the No. 1 team in the national Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

Now the Chinese Bandits and Billy Cannon face another vital game Saturday with Tennessee, beaten by Georgia Tech and tied by Alabama. If LSU gets past this game, only off-beaten Mississippi State and Tulane bar the door to another perfect campaign and the Sugar Bowl.

14th Straight Time
LSU received 132 first place votes among the 202 cast in the poll. It was the 14th straight time the Tigers have been the No. 1 club, including a pre-season ballot.

Northwestern, the No. 2 club, showed impressively against Indiana, 30-13 with its crippled back in the line-up. They may need everything they have Saturday when they meet once-beaten Wisconsin, the No. 9 team, with the Big Ten lead at stake.

The unofficial Eastern title will be at stake Saturday at University Park, Pa. when Syracuse (6-0) plays Penn State (7-0), a pairing of the No. 4 team and the No. 7 team in the nation.

Clemson Is New
The only new entry in the top 10 this week is Clemson which took over 10th place after beating Rice 19-0, Georgia Tech, knocked off by Duke 10-7, dropped all the way from ninth to 19th.

The top 10 with points based on 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc. (first place votes in parentheses):

7. Penn State (7)	810
8. Auburn (3)	677
9. Wisconsin (2)	446
10. Clemson (2)	224

JACK TWYMAN TOP SCORER

NEW YORK (AP) — The Cincinnati Royals have lost the winning touch with defeats in their last three games but the head Royal, Jack Twyman, continues to lead National Basketball Assn. scorers.

League statistics released today show Twyman with 227 points in six games—a 37.8 average. His per game pace is second to fabulous Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors but Wilt has played only two games so far—averaging 39.5. As an indication of his kind of scoring, even though the others have played twice or three times as many games, Chamberlain still ranks seventh in total points.

On the total point basis—which determines the scoring champ—Twyman has opened a good lead over Elgin Baylor of Minneapolis, who has clicked for 163 points in five games. Bill Russell of the champion Boston Celtics, stepping up his scoring this season, is third with 97 points in four starts.

Russell, perennial rebound leader, remains first in that department with 101 recoveries in four games but Chamberlain is setting the per-game pace. In the Warriors' two games—both victories—Wilt had grabbed 62, a 31 a game average.

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Sweeney of Springfield and rookie Stan Baliuk of Providence are tied for the lead in an American Hockey League scoring race that's so tight there's only a four-point spread over the first 21 players.

The two leaders each have 15 points, official statistics show today. Sweeney has collected his in nine games on seven goals and eight assists. Baliuk, playing in a dozen games, has scored only three goals, but leads the league with 12 assists.

It's mathematically possible for a tie to develop among two or three of five teams — Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Colorado and Iowa State.

Oklahoma isn't eligible because it went to the Orange Bowl last year.

ALL-EAST 11 SELECTED FOR CURRENT WEEK

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Choquette, Brown's all-Ivy League fullback of 1958, has been named to the weekly All-East team of the Eastern College Athletic Conference for the third time this season.

Choquette played a tremendous game Saturday at Princeton although his team lost 7-0.

Chet Boulris, Harvard senior halfback who starred in a 12-0 upset of Penn, also was named to the backfield along with quarterback Bill Gundy of Dartmouth, who engineered a 12-8 victory over unbeaten Yale.

Earl Little Is "Soph"

The fourth man in the backfield was Steve Friedman of Upsala, who played the full 60 minutes in his team's 20-7 victory over Kings Point, carrying 17 times for 127 yards and one touchdown.

Earl Little, Gettysburg quarterback, didn't make the first team, but he was voted "Sophomore of the Week." The 19-year-old 170-pounder beat Lafayette with a 27-yard field goal in the last 20 seconds, gained 50 yards on the ground and completed five of 11 passes. He also kicked the extra point in Gettysburg's 16-13 victory.

Halfbacks — Chet Boulris, Harvard; Steve Friedman, Upsala.

Fullback — Paul Choquette, Brown.

TD ON 1-YARD PUNT RETURN

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Camp Hill — Hummelstown High School football game Monday night produced this oddity — a touchdown on a one-yard punt return.

Camp Hill turned the trick in defeating Hummelstown 20-6, with a big assist from strong winds.

Hummelstown had the ball on its own five, last down and seven yards to go.

Dick Summy punted the ball high and apparently well downfield. A capricious wind caught the ball, carried it back over the heads of players rushing downfield. It landed on the 17 and bounced back toward the Hummelstown goal.

Charlie Rees of Camp Hill then scooped up the ball on the one and stepped into the end zone.

Bobby Bragan To Join Dodger Staff

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Brash Bobby Bragan returns to the scene of some of his more colorful exploits next season when he assumes a coaching role with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The one time Hollywood manager in the Pacific Coast League was named Monday to replace Charlie Dressen who recently signed to pilot the Milwaukee Braves.

Bragan, 42, played eight years of major league ball and managed two teams — Pittsburgh and Cleveland. He was head man at Hollywood for three years and piloted Spokane in the Pacific Coast League last season.

WANT ARMY IN STADIUM IN '60

NEW YORK (AP) — New York City is going all out to get the Army football team into Yankee Stadium next year and has an eye out for a continuation of the Army-Air Force series here.

Bill Tackmann, director of promotion for industry and public events in the city's Commerce Department, said Monday that he will approach West Point officials at the season's end to see if they are amenable to moving next year's game with Syracuse into Yankee Stadium. The game is scheduled for Nov. 5, 1960, in Army's 27,500 seat Michie Stadium. Army already has a 1961 date with Oklahoma here.

Last Saturday, more than 67,000 fans jammed Yankee Stadium to see Army and Air Force tie 13-13 in the first game of a new inter-service rivalry.

This crowd, plus the throngs in other major sports events here last weekend boosted attendance past the 200,000 mark, and has sent the city scurrying after other choice events.

PEE WEE REESE QUILTS DODGERS

NEW YORK (AP) — After 20 years as player and coach with the Dodgers, Pee Wee Reese is quitting the club to become a baseball telecaster, it was learned today. Official announcement of the switch will be made Thursday.

The 39-year-old veteran from Louisville has signed a two-year contract to join Dizzy Dean in handling the commentary of the CBS Games of the Week on Saturdays and Sundays for a Midwestern brewery. Reese replaces Buddy Blattner, a former major league infielder.

Reese will receive $32,000 a year under the contract which has a 2-year option after the first two years. He received an estimated $18,000 salary as coach with Los Angeles.

According to a source close to Reese, one of the main reasons for Reese's switch to broadcasting was that he will have to be on the road only three days a week.

Van Doren Asks Teaching Job

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles Van Doren says he would like very much to get another teaching job. He has been an instructor in English at Columbia University but the university accepted his proffered resignation a few hours after he admitted he was fed questions and answers on the TV quiz show "Twenty-One."

Van Doren also has a $50,000-a-year consultant's job with the National Broadcasting Co., but has been suspended with pay. NBC has not yet announced its final decision.

A new magazine, Leisure, announced Monday that Van Doren is to be an associate editor in charge of a department called "The Intellect at Leisure." The first issue, with Van Doren as a contributor, comes out next week.

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — King Hussein and his guest, the Shah of Iran, left for Jerusalem today to visit Moslem shrines. They also will visit the Dead Sea before returning to Amman for a dinner in honor of the visiting Shah.

Bolt-Canner Tilt To Draw Record Throng On Friday

Preparations are underway to take care of what will unquestionably be the largest football crowd in Littlestown history on Friday night when the Thunderbolts meet their arch rival, Biglerville, on Memorial Field.

Both teams have seven-game winning streaks and identical 7-1 records. The game will be the final for Littlestown, Laurel Conference champion, while Biglerville will still have an engagement at Biglerville November 14.

Clayton Evans, Littlestown athletic director, said today the bleachers from Biglerville for last week's game with Carlisle will again be used to up the seating capacity to nearly 3,000.

Gates will open at 6:45 with the kickoff scheduled at 8. General admission tickets at 75 cents each will be sold at the gate. Reserved seats at $1 each are now on sale at both schools.

The price of gasoline could never compare with the price of carelessness in using it.

There are as many rules for successful car care as there are experts but one that receives far too little consideration is the importance of moderation. Avoiding extremes pays off in a number of ways.

When a motorist says that he "never" does this or that to his car you can be sure that he is probably going off on a tangent and that he will end up paying the penalty for being an extremist. Even the car factory engineers find it necessary to change their minds. Sometimes in what seems to be a process of reversing themselves they are merely trying to strike an average. This results in a sort of balance that can be beneficial to the car.

Moderation is the real key to success when breaking in modern engines. By avoiding both pokey driving and sustained high speed the new owner can insure himself better seating piston rings and a much smoother running engine. Moderation also plays a role in buying service. I recently watched an owner who regularly runs to the shop for brake adjusting. They tell me that often he drives away with the engine in need of tuning or the headlights out of focus.

Boosting Boiling Point
Just how much higher does the car's pressure cap raise the boiling point of coolant?

No need here to go into all the details, but on one car a 13 psi (pounds per square inch) cap will boost boiling point of plain water to 244 degrees Fahrenheit. A 15 psi cap will run it up four more pounds. This will explain why the higher pressure cap is desirable where a car is equipped with air conditioning.

The boiling points given are at sea level.

Now that many motorists are ordering their new cars with conventional transmissions — a from stressing lower investment at the expense of convenience and safety — it may be well to point out one or two things that concern the clutch. Chatter from the clutch may be due to loose motor mounts, for instance. Or possibly the engine merely needs a tuning.

Looseness in the car's rear, including universal joints and spring will also cause chatter in the drive line when starting in low or reverse. The situation is also aggravated by being too careful when engaging the clutch and feeding gas. "Babying" the clutch makes matters worse. In some cases clutch chatter is due to the engine being set to idle too slowly.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:
"It has taken many years for the trade to discover that often noisy or erratic operation of the starter drive is due merely to a little foreign matter on its threads. One company finds that the trouble is most likely found on cars with air-cooled automatic transmissions."

"While it is possible to eliminate the trouble by using a few drops of 10W oil, if only a little foreign matter has settled on the threads of the drive, I think it is better to remove the drive and clean it properly."

What's Your Trouble?
Q Does an engine have more intake vacuum when the accelerator pedal is up or down? K. R. W.
A When the accelerator pedal is up the throttle is closed to the idling position, and intake vacuum is highest.

Q I notice that the fan blades of the engine of my car are not evenly spaced. Is this a manufacturing defect? The blades are not loose. L. T.

A This is known as an asymmetrical fan. It rotates more quietly. Many engines have had fans of this design for years.

Q I have tried about everything to check overheating. Water goes out the overflow in quantity, even though I am careful not to overfill the radiator when the engine is cold. There is no leakage that I can detect. The engine is properly timed. R. B.

A This looks like an internal gasket leak, combustion gases from one of the cylinders blowing directly into the cooling system. This creates high pressure and forces coolant out the overflow.

Q I have been having trouble keeping a fairly new battery charged. Can't see why I should have such trouble at this time of year. L. McB.

A Your real problem here probably is difficulty re-starting the engine when heated. You probably are cranking for fairly long periods each time you stop the car for an errand and start off again. If the engine is loaded with "varnish" or if it has recently had new rings that may be a little tight, the battery will drain heavily when obliged to crank when the engine is hot.

Q I add the recommended five quarts of oil to the engine after a change, and find that the dipstick shows that the engine pan has been overfilled. Can the stick be inaccurate? B. J. H.

A The collar on the stick may have slipped position, but the more likely explanation for this condition is that the engine does not fully drain-off. It may also have a lot of sludge in the bottom of the pan which takes up space.

Q The right rear window of my car won't operate from the switch in the door beside the driver, but it works from its own switch. What's wrong? S. F.

A This indicates that the wire between the relay and the remote switch of the driver's door panel is broken.

Q My car is equipped with air suspension. Recently it remains low instead of adjusting automatically to load conditions. L. F. C.

A There are several possibilities here, but first have the leveling valve checked.

Q I turned on the radio the other night and found that it was dead. Replacing the blown fuse set went dead again. N. A.

A Looks like vibration points stick. Rap the set with your fist to see if you can shake the points apart. Then try another fuse and turn on and off the set several times.

DEBATE LOOMS IN UN TODAY ON FRANCE'S BOMB

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Another heated debate loomed in the U.N. today as a parade of Asian and African delegates lined up to protest France's plans to explode her first atomic bomb in the Sahara Desert.

Ahmed Taibi Benhima of Morocco was to begin the debate in the 82-nation Political Committee this afternoon. It was his government which proposed that the U.S. go on record opposing the French nuclear test, expected to take place soon.

Benhima was expected to contend that the Sahara is not a man's land and that no nation has the right to contaminate her area with nuclear blasts.

Moch To Reply
France's veteran disarmament expert, Jules Moch, was expected to reply that his government would ignore any U.N. resolution opposing its test plans. Moch reportedly was ready with a scientific report showing that the planned French test would not cause danger of radioactive contamination to any serious degree.

Authoritative sources said the French bomb has been ready for months but the tests had been delayed because the desert experimental station was not ready.

These sources said the French bomb has less explosive force than 100,000 tons of TNT but more than the American A-bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945. Those early bombs were the equivalent of approximately 20,000 tons of TNT. Hydrogen bombs tested by the United States, the Soviet Union and Britain have been in the million-ton class.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Heart ailments in dogs and cats may be diagnosed just as they are in humans — by electrocardiograms — according to Dr. E. Edgar Ruebush of Silver Spring, Md. He explained the use of the machine on pets at the Southern Veterinary Medical Assn. convention. He said dogs and cats are subject to many of the same heart diseases that humans are and heart strain often is found in hunting dogs.

Cold Snap Sweeps Through Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gusty winds blew cold air across wide areas in the eastern third of the country today but a warming trend developed in the nation's mid-section.

The cold air covered areas from the Great Lakes region to the lower Mississippi Valley and eastward to the Atlantic Coast. Biggest temperature drops in the last 24 hours averaged near 20 degrees and were in the Ohio Valley and lower Great Lakes region.

Readings ranged from the 20s in the Great Lakes through the 30s extending southward into Virginia and Kentucky. The 40s and 50s prevailed in other areas southward, with the 60s near the Gulf Coast.

PAPER ASSERTS EXILES TO OPEN DRIVE ON CUBA

NEW YORK (AP) — Cuban exiles in the United States and Latin America will launch an all-out campaign tonight to overthrow the Cuban government of Fidel Castro, the New York Mirror reported today.

The newspaper in a dispatch from Miami said a provisional government is being organized to lead the campaign, which will be based on the parachuting of sabotage groups into Cuba.

Dr. Emilio Nunez Portuondo, former Cuban ambassador to the United Nations and now an exile in this country, will be named president of the provisional government, according to the Mirror. Nunez Portuondo was not immediately available for comment.

Fled With Batista

The Mirror said Gen. Jose Pedraza, long-time Cuban army officer, will head the provisional government's armed forces. Pedraza came out of retirement in the last days of ex-President Fulgencio Batista's regime. He fled with Batista to the Dominican Republic.

The report said a broadcast by an underground radio will be beamed to Cuba at 8 o'clock tonight announcing the makeup of the provisional government and its program.

The Mirror, which did not disclose the source of its report, said the saboteurs will first attack Cuba's vital cane sugar industry, then later this month will open up against factories.

CONVICT MAN OF KILLING COP

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — George Cole, convicted of second-degree murder, faces a five-year to life sentence for the shooting of San Francisco police Sgt. Joseph Lacey.

A jury of seven women and five men ruled Monday night that Cole, 32, was guilty of second-degree murder and assault with a deadly weapon. He had been charged with murder and attempted robbery in a bar Dec. 30, 1956. The state had sought a first-degree murder conviction.

Thomas Hamrick, 28, Cole's accomplice who at his own trial named Cole as the trigger man, is serving a life sentence in San Quentin Prison. He refused to testify in the trial last week.

Cole was arrested in Des Moines, Iowa, in July by FBI agents who traced him through drugstore prescriptions used by Yvonne Conley, 45. The couple had been residing there, Cole operating a service station under an alias.

Cole previously served time in San Quentin and in the Missouri Penitentiary for arm ed robbery and auto theft.

8TH VICTIM OF BLAZE BURIED

OTTUMWA, Iowa (AP) — The eighth victim of a house fire will be buried here today.

Services will be held for Sharon Ann Dooley, 13, babysitter for the seven children who died when fire destroyed their two-room house while their mothers were in a tavern.

Sharon was rescued from the blazing building but died of burns Sunday.

The six children of Patricia Van Horne, and the daughter of Mrs. Van Horne's sister, Lorraine Campbell, were buried side by side in little white caskets Monday.

Carlton Campbell attended the funeral of his daughter Carla, 3, with permission of county authorities who had jailed him on a charge of deserting his wife and family in 1957.

The father of the Van Horne children, Herman, was in a Santa Monica, Calif., jail on suspicion of bigamy. Police said he married a second wife there last month, after leaving his family in February.

The offering. Group games were played in charge of Terry Arbogast and Marilyn Miller. Homemade ice cream was then served. Marilyn Miller will be leader for the next meeting on Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

GREEKS, TURKS RESUME TALKS OVER CYPRUS

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — After two weeks of inactivity, the Greek-Turkish constitutional committee resumed negotiations Monday on the division of government powers between their two communities after Cyprus becomes independent next year.

Archbishop Makarios, the Greek Cypriot leader, suspended committee meetings Oct. 21 after a British minesweeper captured an ammunition-laden Turkish fishing boat off Cyprus.

The archbishop's action aroused fears that strife would resume between the Greek and Turkish Cypriot communities. The way was opened to a resumption of negotiations by appeals from both the archbishop and Turkish Cypriot leader Fazil Kutchuk for their people to surrender all illegally held arms by midnight Wednesday. No arms have been turned in yet.

Faces New Opposition

Makarios faced new opposition from his own people. Six leading Greek Cypriot mayors — representing all shades of political opinion — accused the archbishop of dictatorial tendencies and demanded an immediate review of the London agreement giving independence to Cyprus.

The archbishop refused to comment on the mayors' charges. "It is up to the people to judge and reach conclusions after reading the mayors' memorandum," he said.

Hoodlum Asked Cop For Release

NEW YORK (AP) — A state trooper has testified that John C. Montana told him he "might be able to do something" for him if he'd let Montana go after catching him at the Apalachin underworld conclave.

Montana, former Buffalo Republican councilman from the Buffalo police fraternal organization named Buffalo "Man of the Year" in 1956, is on trial in federal court here with 20 other delegates to the Apalachin, N. Y., meeting.

State Police Sgt. Edgar D. Crosswell testified Monday that Montana talked with him after he was rounded up Nov. 14, 1957, with more than 60 hoodlums and associates at the home of the late Joseph Barbara Sr.

The 21 defendants are charged with conspiring to give evasive and false answers about the conclave to federal grand juries and other investigative agencies.

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y. (AP) — Sixteen jurors hearing a murder trial had a bus at their disposal today to take them to the polls. The round trip—regarded as an election day precedent—was estimated at about 200 miles. Clinton County chartered the bus. Guards were ordered to accompany the jurors.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "I don't have much more money now than I had then. And I have considerably less hair."

That, says Vice President Richard M. Nixon, is the difference between his life today and 14 years ago when he was launched on a political career by friends in Southern California.

Nixon came home Monday night with his wife, Pat, to speak at a banquet reunion of the Committee of 100 that selected him to run for Congress in 1946.

GIVE MEDAL FOR RESCUE FROM WRECK

HARRISBURG (AP) — S/Sgt. Robert H. Finnen, 36, of Carlisle Star Route, has been awarded one of the Air Force's highest peace time decorations for pulling an unconscious airman from the flaming wreckage of an auto.

Award of the Soldier's Medal to Finnen was announced by the Air Force in a letter Monday to Maj. Gen. A. J. Drexel Biddle, adjutant general of Pennsylvania.

Finnen, a reservist, will receive the citation at a special formation of his Air National Guard unit at Spaatz Field, Reading.

Finnen was returning home from a drill last July 19 with Lt. Edwin L. Herr, of Carlisle, when their auto skidded across the medial trip of Route 22 near Indian-town Gap, was struck by another car and caught fire.

He was injured when he was thrown clear of the wreck. But he pulled the unconscious Herr from the car and beat out the lieutenant's flaming clothing. The gas tank exploded seconds after the rescue.

Finnen recovered from his injuries, but Herr is still under treatment for multiple burns.

An Air National Guard official said Finnen's "prompt and decisive action reflects great credit upon himself, the Air National Guard and the U. S. Air Force."

BOSTON (AP)—The USS Glacier, the Navy's largest icebreaker, is en route to the antarctic to take part in the fifth consecutive "Operation Deep Freeze." The vessel left Monday and is due to arrive in Little America Dec. 10.

SEE BATTLE POSSIBLE IN TRUST FUND

NEW YORK (AP)—The Juilliard School of Music and the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts may face a court battle to get nine million dollars left by a granddaughter of the late John D. Rockefeller.

Clarence Francis, chairman of the center's fund-raising campaign, announced Sunday, a trust committee had selected Juilliard to receive the money. He said the school could spend it either on new construction at the Lincoln Center or to finance any of its programs.

But an executor of the estate, Thomas G. Chamberlain, said the four young adopted children of the granddaughter, the late Marjorie McCormick Hubbard, should get the money. Chamberlain added that an out-of-court settlement could avoid a fight.

1917 Trust

Francis said the trust was created by Rockefeller in 1917 for Mrs. Hubbard. At her death, it was to go either to her children or to charity, he said. Mrs. Hubbard, 56, died last March 18.

The adopted children—Jackie, 6, Hal, also 6, Elisha, 4, and Anna, 1—live with their guardian, Catherine M. Dwyer, at Mrs. Hubbard's home, Lone Tree Farm, Middletown, Conn.

Francis said lawyers for the Chase Manhattan Bank, trustee of the trust, said the adopted chil-

THREE SISTERS BURN TO DEATH

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A doctor's three small daughters burned to death Sunday when a fire which firemen think was started by a candle in a jack-o-lantern destroyed their home.

Fire investigators sifted the ruins of the $50,000 home of Dr. Bryan Forister for clues to the cause of the blaze which killed Brenda, 6, Leasa Rader, 5, and Patricia, 2.

The jack-o-lantern left in a chair near the window drew the immediate blame. "I figure the candle caught the drapes on fire," said investigator B.A. Cook.

FLOOD RUINS ALL SOULS DAY

MANZANILLO, Mexico (AP)—There were no flowers for the dead here on this All Souls' Day, none of the family picnics that usually follow the annual visits to graves of loved ones on this religious festival.

Instead, thousands of dazed and bewildered men, women and children—homeless and hungry—shuffled aimlessly among ruins that once had been their homes, or took to the roads in search of food and shelter.

They were the survivors of the hurricane, floods and landslides which ravaged Mexico's Pacific states of Jalisco and Colima last Tuesday. An estimated 1,500 persons died.

More Aid Due

Relief supplies of food, medicine, clothing and some building materials are coming into the stricken area by air, road and sea, in small lots. Rail lines which can handle larger shipments, are still closed.

The government has ordered a vast reconstruction program and has announced it will give credits for the people to start new lives.

U. S. Population Is 178,804,190

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau estimated the nation's population at 178,804,190 as of 8 a.m. today.

This was the calculation made for the bureau's "census clock," a counting device installed in the department lobby. The clock's figures change minute by minute to reflect the steady population growth.

On Jan. 1, the estimated population was 175,602,000. Part of the increase since then represents children are ineligible for the money since it was to be handed down to Mrs. Hubbard's issue. He said Chase Manhattan will take legal steps necessary to turn over the money to Juilliard.

"It would be morally wrong," said Chamberlain, "and represent a shocking miscarriage of justice if these adopted children should be deprived of their inheritance."

ASKS PUBLIC FOR OPINION

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Eisenhower Monday urged the public to flood Congress and his office with demands that America's economy be kept sound.

Eisenhower, warning against the dangers of inflation, called for the demonstration of support in an informal talk at a conference designed to promote economic growth and stabilize living costs.

He told the conference sponsors that one of the greatest helps that the President and Congress get in the handling of great problems is millions of letters and other communications from the public.

Eisenhower called on the sponsors to promote a flood of such communications in the interest of a sound dollar.

That, he added, would be "one of the greatest services you can accomplish for the United States of America."

Eisenhower spoke at a breakfast meeting of representatives of 48 national organizations. The one-day conference was arranged by H. Bruce Palmer, president of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

BRIEFS

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Herbert H. Baxter, who served as a city councilman for 14 years and Charlotte mayor for six of those years, was defeated in the last municipal election. Now he is enrolled in a course sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. It's entitled "Practical politics."

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Public education costs will rise one billion dollars in New York state during the next four years, the Board of Regents estimates. Current costs are estimated at $1,600,000,000. The regents said school enrollment was climbing at a rate of 100,000 pupils a year.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is trying to stop all unauthorized flights from Florida to Cuba by stationing immigration officers at the state's 200 airports.

This new program, announced by the Justice Department Sunday came after charges by Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba that private planes, based in Florida, had flown over Havana, dropping leaflets and bombs.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harmar D. Denny resigned Monday from the Civil Aeronautics Board, effective Nov. 15. President Eisenhower chose Whitney Gilliland, now chairman of the Foreign Claims Commission, to succeed Denny. Denny wrote Eisenhower that he had signed his intention some time ago to leave the CAB. Eisenhower thanked him for a valuable contribution. Gilliland was given a recess appointment. Eisenhower also gave a recess appointment to Thomas W. Davis, a Democrat from Warren, Va., as successor to Gilliland on the Foreign Claims Commission.

Hunter Kills Boy Walking To Bus

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A 12-year-old boy was killed by a hunter Monday as he walked to a school bus near his home in Northampton Township, Bucks County.

The boy, Andrew Kulas, was struck in the back with a shotgun pellet. His stepfather, George Poorman, drove the lad to Abington Memorial Hospital but he was dead on arrival.

State police and game protectors searched the woods but were unable to find the hunter who fired the shot.

Poorman had spent most of Sunday putting up "no hunting" signs on his property.

The boy's mother told police she "heard a shot—three shots," then saw Andrew stagger.

BIG DAY FOR MR. STASSEN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—This is showdown day for embattled Harold E. Stassen. Either Philadelphia's surprise most insiders and elect the Republican underdog mayor or they strike what could be the fatal blow to his waning political career.

A Democratic registration majority of more than 100,000 and the endorsement of Philadelphia's three daily newspapers and other major organizations establish Democrat Richardson Dilworth as a favorite in his bid for a second term.

While the Democrats and even some Republican leaders—privately—are putting their money on Dilworth, Stassen is brimming with confidence. He foresees an "upset victory" by at least 60,000.

The Democrats, too, are confident that Dilworth, who is running on his first term record, will emerge a victor by at least a margin of 150,000.

A defeat for Stassen, 52, could send him into oblivion since he has suffered setback after setback in recent years. GOP leaders likely would not risk running him again at any level.

The former governor of Minnesota and disarmament advisor to President Eisenhower has lost bids for the Republican presidential nomination three times since 1944.

OTHER STATES VOTING TODAY

KENTUCKY—Picks a governor, with Democrat Bert T. Combs running against Republican John M. Robinson Jr. Combs favored, but a split with retiring Gov. A. B. Chandler may hurt his chances.

New Jersey, Kentucky, Virginia, Mississippi and New York—Elect state legislators with only local issues involved. Boston, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Salt Lake City—Elect mayors; campaigns largely on local issues.

2 CHILDREN KILLED WHEN JET CRASHES

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The pilot of a jet fighter that slammed into a house and killed two children says "If I were blessed with foresight, I might have ridden it into the ground."

"You can't know how I feel about the aircraft going into a house," the pilot said after the crash Monday.

The pilot, Maj. James Bradbury, 34, the father of a small daughter, bailed out of his plane.

But Air Force officials said he did all he could, staying with the supersonic F104 Starfighter—which had an explosion and lost power—until it was out of control and 500 feet below recommended minimum bail-out altitude.

They arranged to fly Grace Shoup, 34, mother of the two little victims, to a Texas military medical center specializing in burn treatment today.

She ran screaming from the burning building, a converted brick school, with her clothes on fire. Clyde Allen, a neighbor, grabbed a blanket from his house, wrapped Mrs. Shoup in it and smothered the flames.

The house, in rural Green County near the Dayton suburb of Kettering, was destroyed. Mrs. Shoup's daughters, Lori Ann, 2, and Lynne Marie, 12, were killed. Lynne was home because her overcrowded school has half-day sessions.

Two other children, Billy, 10, and Tommy, 8, were in school. Mrs. Shoup's husband John was at work at the National Cash Register Co. in Dayton.

Negro, 17, Admits Attack-Slaying

ATHENS, Ala. (AP)—A young Negro has admitted raping and killing a white farm woman and beating her aged mother.

Prosecutor Jimmy Woodroof said that Joe Henry Johnson, 17, was charged with rape and first-degree murder Monday night and taken to an undisclosed jail.

Johnson was arrested at his home near the women's farm a few hours after the body of Dicie Boyd, 62, was found nearly nude in a barn Sunday.

Her mother, Mrs. W. T. Boyd, 88, was found in the farm house. Her head had been battered. She was reported in a serious condition. The two women lived alone.

PARIS (AP)—Police are on the lookout for $20,000 worth of jewelry stolen from the home of famed pianist Artur Schnabel.

"Everything was taken from us during the war—we've got used to it now," said Schnabel, whose wit matches his skill at the keyboard.

Mrs. Rubenstein discovered the robbery Sunday while dressing to attend a recital by her husband.

KY. GOP HAS HOPES TODAY

By DORMAN CORDELL
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky Republicans held hopes today that Democratic dissension would help elect the state's first GOP governor in 16 years.

Although Democratic Gov. A. B. Chandler predicted thousands of unhappy Democrats would stay at home, a turnout of about 800,000 was expected during the polling hours between 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. to choose between Democrat Bert Combs and Republican John Robison.

Leaders of the faction backing

Combs maintain there is no real split among the Democrats. They say his margin over Robison will be at least 74,000 votes.

Republican leaders, however, predict the First Congressional District, a Democratic stronghold, will not return its usual overwhelming majority for the party.

Also at stake are eight other statewide offices and two proposed amendments to the state constitution.

One amendment, which proposes paying a bonus to veterans of four wars, has been the subject of strong non-partisan controversy. Combs and Robison agreed to take no public stand on the bonus.

The average milk bottle is re-used 33 times.

WOMAN TELLS OF RIGGED QUIZ 3 YEARS AGO

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A Richmond woman says she was told to "pour your heart out to the nation" before going on stage on the now dead CBS television program "Strike it Rich" in 1955.

Dorothy Waller Heppert of suburban Highland Springs said what she told on the air she had been instructed to tell.

Mrs. Heppert told the Richmond Times-Dispatch she was given the questions and their answers and was told how much to bet—all her money on the first and second rounds $30 on the third and $5 on the last. She won $155.

Warren Hull (the master of ceremonies) said I was lucky. I had fines. I started to say, "This is so untrue. I've won? They've given me the answers? But I was scared. I didn't know what they might have done."

Mrs. Heppert said she was like many others who appeared on the same show. They had done so because they needed money.

She said she needed the money for hearing aids for two of her three children who are partly deaf as a result of measles.

"Needed The Money"
Mrs. Heppert said officials of the show asked her to travel to New York and told her she would be reimbursed. She said the show put her and the children in a small hotel room and provided up to 60

River Bottom Searched For Loot Stolen By Cops

TWO GUNMEN THREATEN 5 COPS; NABBED

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Two gunmen who disarmed five Augusta policemen on threat of death were captured Monday at an inn across the Savannah River in South Carolina.

Police said one of the men, Forrest W. Phillips, 32, was wounded critically. His companion, Elmon Middleton, 23, of Harlan, Ky., surrendered meekly.

Criminal investigator William Elliott of Richmond County received a flesh wound in the left arm.

Two policemen were sent to an Augusta parking lot to arrest Phillips on a charge of child abandonment. He denied being the man sought. Middleton and three other officers joined the group.

Threatened Death
Suddenly Phillips and Middleton drew pistols and covered the five officers, threatening to kill them if they didn't surrender their weapons. The policemen obeyed.

Patrolman Lybrand Hutto saw what was happening from across the street and called headquarters. Hutto had the pair in his pistol sights, but the pistol wouldn't fire, he said.

Phillips and Middleton heard a patrol car radio ordering more police to the scene. They picked up the officers' pistols and fled in a car with a woman identified as Barbara J. Finstead, 26, of Augusta.

The woman was arrested later and charged with being an accessory.

Police were informed the fugitives had gone to an inn across the Savannah River. Officers surrounded the place.

Middleton surrendered. Then Phillips charged out a rear door of the inn firing wildly. One of the shots hit Elliott. Policeman James Goodwin fired back. A bullet hit Phillips over the heart but was deflected and ranged down over his left hip.

Articles collected by investigators during the probe include quantities of floor tile, camera equipment, garden tools and the like. Investigators said the articles may be worth several thousand dollars.

Reports that merchandise disappeared during burglary investigations set off the intra-department probe.

CLOTHES ARE PROBLEM FOR NAKED STATUE IN BRUSSELS

By EDDY GILMORE
BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — "It's not a question of too few clothes," said former Belgian Sen. Leo Schalkens, "but of too many."

He referred to Brussels world-famous statue of a curly-haired little boy being naughty in public.

A member of the Brussels Municipal Council, the Brabant County Council, and a newspaper editor, Schalkens is proud of his job as president of an association of the friends of the naughty boy.

70 Complete Uniforms
"We founded the association of his friends five years ago," Schalkens said, "and we meet at least twice a month."

"One of our greatest problems is the clothes we receive for the undressed boy."

"They come from all over the world. He now has more than 70 complete uniforms."

With a delightful sense of humor, the City Council has collected the uniforms and has them on display in a museum.

Clothes A Bother
"These clothes are getting to be a bother," said Schalkens, "for the boy stands glorious, unique and unashamed in his plump nakedness. He doesn't need clothes. To clothe him would spoil him, but the world doesn't seem to understand."

Uniforms have come from the American Army, the British, the Royal Air Force, the Canadians, and the French Foreign Legion — to mention but a few.

The boy has been decorated by numerous nations.

The decorations are on display in the museum too.

He's been stolen twice — by English soldiers in 1745, and French soldiers two years later.

"Splendid Insult"

"He is our most famous landmark," said Schalkens. "He's to Brussels what the Eiffel Tower is to Paris, the Statue of Liberty to New York and Big Ben is to London."

A stream of water plays a big part in the statue's daily life.

"This dates back from an old legend," said Schalkens, "when the young son of a duke climbed into a tree and rudely, but correctly, insulted some foreign troops."

"At this splendid insult, the troops of Brussels took heart, rallied and won the day."

Weather Forecast

Extended forecast for the period Tuesday, Nov. 3, through Saturday, Nov. 7:
